

The Edwin Way Teale Lecture Series 2003-2004

Presented at the University of Connecticut, Storrs, CT
All presentations to be held at the Dodd Center, Konover Auditorium

Nature AND THE Environment

FALL 2003

September 23, Tuesday 4:00 PM

Julian Keniry - Director, National Wildlife Federation Campus Ecology Program
Greening the Campus: How Universities are Improving Environmental Performance and Sustainability

October 9, Thursday 4:00 PM

Diana Wall - Professor and Director, Natural Resource Ecology Laboratory
Colorado State University
Below-ground Biodiversity of Hot and Cold Deserts

November 20, Thursday 4:00 PM

Gordon Orians - Professor Emeritus of Zoology, University of Washington
Environmental Esthetics: Beauty and the Evolutionary Mind of the Beholder

SPRING 2004

February 12, Thursday (Venue and time to be determined)

Kaiulani Lee - Playwrite and actor; OBIE Award winner for outstanding achievement off-Broadway
A Sense of Wonder: A One Act Play Based on the Life and Works of Rachel Carson

April 8, Thursday 7:30 PM

P. Dee Boersma - Professor, Zoology, University of Washington
Penguins, People, Pollution, and Politics; When Science Is Not Enough

April 29, Thursday 4:00 PM

Jason Shogren - Stroock Distinguished Professor of Natural Resource Conservation and Management, Department of Economics and Finance,
University of Wyoming
Economic Incentives for Spatial Habitat Design to protect endangered Species

Photo: Edwin Way Teale observing ring-billed gulls at the beach,
February 1947

Courtesy of: Edwin Way Teale Papers, Archives and Special Collections;
Thomas J. Dodd Research Center, University of Connecticut

THE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE & NATURAL RESOURCES GEOGRAPHY THE ENVIRONMENTAL ENGINEERING PROGRAM GEOLOGY & GEOPHYSICS THE OFFICE OF ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL THE CONNECTICUT STATE MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY NATURAL RESOURCES MANAGEMENT & ENGINEERING THE CENTER FOR CONSERVATION & BIODIVERSITY DRAMATIC ARTS